The Echo 1978

Alma Mater

*Dear Palmersville, our Alma Mater, Thy praise we sing with heart and voice,
Thy Black and Gold flows proudly
o'er us,
While in thy glory we rejoice.
So stand thy brave old trees about
thee,
Strong as thy branches wave in storm.
So stand thy children to defend thee,
While love in every heart beats warm.*

DEDICATION

We, the Senior class of 1978, would like to dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Carl J. MacDaniel. We do this in an effort to show our appreciation for his years of service to our school and community. Without his personal help our years at P.H.S. would have been very difficult. We thank you, Mr. Mac.

I hope you have nice summer and a good season, lots of luck I will never forget you.
Love always

SENIORS

Time is but the stream I go a-fishing in. I drink at it; but while I drink I see the sandy bottom and detect how shallow it is. Its thin current slides away, but eternity remains.

David Thoreau

Class Wills

I, Ann Curry, will to Janet my height, to Mary my ability to sit still in class for an hour and to Jeff and Ricky my pockets. (HA)

I, Tim Seaton, will to Jeff Seaton, my ability to get a girlfriend and keep the same one for two years. To Kenny Quinton, my ability to BIG DOG anywhere and anytime. (Private Joke)

I, Sylvia Crafton, will to Ray Pinkston my biggest smile possible; even when I'm mad. My kid sis, five great years, to Janet Curry one special order of D.D. (Private Joke)

I, Jeff Brann, will to Kenny Quinton my great height, and ability to stuff a basketball (from a ladder).

I, Hal Bynum, will to Chris Barber my never-ending charm and ability to keep everybody upset always.

I, Suzanne Lemons, do hereby bequeath to my courageous sister, Donna, two bionic arms to catch dangerous falling objects with and in case they fail, a pair of bionic legs to run with.

I, John V. Johnson, being of sound mind and healthy body, leave to my baby brother one uncooked bag of rabbit food and to Janie one dried out candy-bar that is in my locker. May you all finish.

I, Jean Muckelvaney, will my half-way decent grades to my brother, Don, hoping he might graduate with them.

I, Tony Rainbolt, being of sound mind and body, bequeath to Treasa Crittendon my old locker and all the memories of an empty class room.

I, Keith Turbeville, will to Stacie Ann Fagan one single date, to Treasa Crittendon my cousin Tony Rainbolt and to Nancy's Flower Basket a many a bill for a many a flower bought by me during my Senior year.

I, Steve Scott, being the last Scott to graduate from good old P.H.S., will to Janie Muckelvaney one heater in the study hall to keep warm by in the winter.

I, Ann M. Bynum, will to Julie, Stacie, Treasa C. and Treasa P. and Shelia my ability to remain cool and calm on the ball-court at all times, no matter how rough the going gets.

I, Anita Pinkston, will to Barabara Henderson, my naturally curly hair. To Angela Turner my ability to wear high-heel shoes.

I, Randy Pinkston, will my ability to write a will to Ricky Workman. And to Jr. Dean my ability to cheat on tests without getting caught.

I, Kim Turbeville, being of sound mind and body, will to Tami Graner my ability to get into unobvious places under difficult circumstances, get the job done, and get out without getting caught.

Every part of nature teaches that the passing away of one life is the making room for another. The oak dies down to the ground, leaving within its rind a rich virgin mould, which will impart a vigorous life to an infant forest.
